

- (c) At the Chair of the Board request, review scientific and technological aspects of Company acquisitions and business development activities;
- (d) At the Chair of the Board request, review new research and development technologies in which the Company is investing or considering;